Don't know what to think, don't know how to think, don't know why to think. I don't know a lot of things and I don't want to think. I don't know what is right or wrong or wrong or right. I want him to save me but he is on a vacation with Tom, ig I'll wait then. I really want the old Jerry to die, like gone forever. I've tried everything but nothing works, nothing. He just kept coming back like a fucking zombie. Ima turning into a threepeater so I can end him.
