Tbh I should be doing data analysis right now, but here I am. I don't really care about stuff like that until the stupid NSF funding cut. Yeah, celebrating people's death is stupid, bombing children is stupid, pro-gun is stupid, mass school shooting is stupid, and labeling people is stupid. "Yeah, I'm a republican, I should support anti-abortion, I should hate LGBTQ. Yeah, I'm a democrat, let's give some criminals a second chance." Like BRUH, do you see how stupid this is. Stop creating labels. BE A HUMAN AND HAVE SOME COMMON SENSE. Pro gun pro gun, pro gun until someone points one in front of them for no reason. Literally brings nothing to this society but deaths. SO SO SO many people died every day because of factors they can't control but somehow some rando always gets more attention than others. Am I pissed? no, and rip. Fair? also no. Expected? yes, BUT STILL FREAKING UNFAIR. When other ppl die, only people who cared about them would cry, and others might be like, "I think it's worth it. I think it's worth having a cost of, unfortunately, some gun deaths every single year so that we can have the Second Amendment to protect our other God-given rights." WORTH IT MY ASS. I'VE SEEN multiple people's lives fading away right in front of me. I understand that not every life matters, but at least, pls let those innocent ppl live a peaceful life, and acknowledge that it is FUCKED UP to take their life away from them.
