I'm actually at the airport. I may update the Random section in the next few weeks (aka photo section, yeah yeah yeah I know I'm lazy). I only slept 2 hours yesterday so I can sleep during the flight lol. Gotta visit my grandma, then return before the spring semester starts. I almost forgot the last time I visited ngl, it's been so long cuz I always had something to do during winter and summer break, like taking classes or internships, plus now facetime is a thing.
