ny is so freaking cold but snow day tomorrow so yeah. Finished john wick chapter 2 to 4 on the flight, I don't really like it, maybe 7/10 cuz the fight scenes were good tho.

Sent three emails to three professors from last semester asking for letter of recommendation, two responded within 15 mins and one responded within a day. I now have 4 letter of recommendations (plus my pi) at my disposal lol.

Another starless city, but I don't really mind tho cuz you are here.
