Was talking with my pi today and then he took me to Calder's office to ask some questions, I didn't say anything lol, well not because I didn't know what they were talking about but I just don't want to interrupt their discussions or asking something dumb.

Probably should refill my meds, don't know if I can survive this semester with only 4 left in the bottle. The problem is I haven't refilled them before, and I think I lost the prescription, which means I have to call my social worker again, and she will be like Jerry why didn't you follow up with your appointments blah blah. Remember the time I asked you if you were scared of me, well cuz I'm scared of myself sometimes.
