Yeah yeah yeah I know it's 4:08am. I always do my hw late due to procrastination lol. I have a final tomorrow around 5pm but I'm not really worried about it, like I can get a 60 on that final and still get an A in the class, that's how goated I am. I also finished bsd all 5 seasons and the movie in like 3 days. I probably will write some rants later maybe today or tomorrow, I mean I really love all 5 seasons especially the movie but I still think there could be some improvements (more chuuya scene pls cough cough). I now only have 2 finals and one project left so I probably will write more often.

oh yeah I forgot to mention, if the first letter of your first and middle name is the same as the last letter of your last name then sorry, you probably are the one I'm writing to.
