I wish i could just turn into a pebble so I don't have to think. People don't understand how exhausting it is to keep myself from turning into insanity. Sometimes I do ask myself did I ask for any of these, and I can't answer, I just can't. If I can, I would travel back to 2022, look at my clueless past self, pat his head like Frieren did to Sein, and then end him.
