About the holy fool, maybe holy fools, I want it to be a story between two. Not me tho, but my ideas. I really need to learn how to draw(cry face). I don't want to spoil anything, but I won't be adding any dialogue because I can't voice multiple people at the same time. I'll probably add some background music tho and I want to make it myself too. I'm not sure how long it will take, but it's going to be beautiful.
