okay I lied, um so this week's meeting is moved to Friday because I have a midterm tomorrow, so yeah I do have a little bit of free time now(not really). I don't really mask people's names cuz most of them are my Professors or friends(unless it is something weird), maybe I should in the future.

Not the boy I was, the boy I am is just venting, venting~
Dear gravity, you held me down in this starless city~
